

that the question may be debated and a conclusion be arrived at in the very House. Instead of that, he is making a motion that it should be referred to the Privileges Committee.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—Does the right rest with the member or the House?

Mr. SPEAKER.—Let us not be so technical. Nobody can take away the power of the House.

Sri MAHMOOD SHARIFF (Broadway).—Sir, the question before us is not a complicated one. It has no constitutional complexity. If we apply our commonsense we can come to a decision. The only point before us is whether the motion moved by Sri A. V. Narasimha Reddy should go straight to the Privileges Committee or whether it should be discussed here. If it is going to be discussed here, we should have some time to study the whole thing, whether words used were offensive or inoffensive. From the commonsense point of view, I suggest that it may be referred to the Privileges Committee. There is nothing to discuss about this now.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The question is :

“That the question raised by Sri A. V. Narasimha Reddy be referred to the Privileges Committee.”

The motion was adopted.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The question is referred to the Privileges Committee.

MYSORE COURT FEES AND SUITS VALUATION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1958.

Motion to consider.

Sri T. SUBRAMANYA (Minister for Law, Labour and Local Self-Government).—Sir, I beg to move :

“That the Mysore Court Fees and Suits Valuation (Amendment) Bill, 1958, be taken into consideration.”

Mr. SPEAKER.—Motion moved :

“That the Mysore Court Fees and Suits Valuation (Amendment) Bill, 1958, be taken into consideration.”

Sri T. SUBRAMANYA.—It is a very small amendment. When we sent the original Bill of 1957 for the assent of the President, they advised us
